AWAITING THE END OF THE WORLD.

True to their belief that a great upheavel is about to occur whereby the top crust of the earth will peal off carrying the wicked to destruction and leaving the "elect" in andisputed possession of the world, several Rhode Island families belonging to the sect known as the Latter Reign of the Apostolic Church have gone to Duxbury, Mass., an appointed place, to wait for the cataclysm. The time set for the triumph of the faithful is ten o'clock tomorrow morning. Leaders of the sect from Rhode Island, Maine and elsewhere are now at Duxbury and it is said that many of them have disposed of all their worldly goods and abandoned their various ocpations.

Firm in their conviction that the orld will come to an end tomorrow a colony of about 300 members, of the Latter Reign of the Apostolic Church of West Duxbury are spending what they believe to be their few remaining hours in prayer, song and exhortation. The scene of their religious ardor is "Ashod," a little wooden chapel on the turnpike between Boston and Plymouth in Dux-

Worldly tasks have been laid aside that the faithful may prepare for the millennium. The services are pratically continuous. In all branches of worship the congregation participates, singles, the hymne with fervor and interrupting prayer and exhortation with piou

Occasionally the services at the chapel are suspended long enough to permit a trip to the neighboring pond where the converts are baptized.

To feed the crowd that is attending the meetings a big tent has been erected near the church, while the houses in the neighborhood and even the church horse sheds furnish a lodging for the people

None of the faithful appears to have a shadow of doubt that the world will end tomorrow. When asked what they wil do if the expected event does not terialize, most of them refuse to entertain such a supposition. Some suggest that a lovefeast be held for 10 days or so while others still say that if the millen nium does not come on Friday it wii come next year at the same season.
